3 TRAINING REQUIREMENTS

There are no specific training requirements applicable to this procedure.

4 POLICY

4.1 Nature of complaints and appeals

- TRILITY responds to all allegations involving the conduct of:
 - The RTO, its trainers and assessors and other staff.
 - Any third party providing Services on behalf of TRILITY.
 - Any student or client of TRILITY.
- Complaints may be made in relation to any of TRILITY’s services and activities such as:
 - the application and enrolment process
 - marketing information
 - the quality of training and assessment provided
 - training and assessment matters, including student progress, student support and assessment requirements
 - the way someone has been treated
 - the actions of another student
- An appeal is a request for a decision made by TRILITY to be reviewed. Decisions may have been about:
 - course admissions
 - refund assessments
 - response to a complaint

- assessment outcomes / results
- other general decisions made by TRILITY

4.2 Principles of resolution

- TRILITY is committed to providing a procedurally fair complaints and appeals process that is carried out free from bias, following the principles of natural justice. Through this policy and procedure, TRILITY ensures that complaints and appeals:
 - Are responded to in a consistent and transparent manner.
 - Are responded to promptly, objectively, with sensitivity and confidentiality.
 - Are able to be made at no cost to the individual.
 - Are used as an opportunity to identify potential causes of the complaint or appeal and take actions to prevent the issues from recurring as well as identifying any areas for improvement.
- TRILITY will inform all persons or parties involved in any allegations made as well as providing them with an opportunity to present their side of the matter.
- Nothing in this policy and procedure limits the rights of an individual to take action under Australia's Consumer Protection laws and it does not circumscribe an individual's rights to pursue other legal remedies.
- Where a student chooses to access this policy and procedure, TRILITY will maintain the student's enrolment while the complaints/appeals handling process is ongoing.

4.3 Timeframes for resolution

- Complaints and appeals will be finalised as soon as practicable or at least within 30 calendar days unless there is a significant reason for the matter to take longer. In matters where additional time is needed, the complainant or appellant will be advised in writing of the reasons and will be updated weekly on the progress of the matter until such a time that the matter is resolved.

4.4 Records of complaints and appeals

- TRILITY will maintain a record of all complaints and appeals and their outcomes on the Complaints and Appeals Register, which will be securely stored according to the Privacy Policy and Procedures.

4.5 Making a complaint or appeal

- Complaints about a particular incident should be made as soon as possible after the incident occurring and appeals must be made within thirty (30) calendar days of the original decision being made.
- Complaints and appeals must be made in writing using the Complaints and Appeals Form, or other written format and sent to TRILITY's head office at L4/115 Grenfell St, Adelaide SA 5000 attention to the Chief Executive Officer.

- When making a complaint or appeal, provide as much information as possible to enable TRILITY to investigate and determine an appropriate solution. This should include:
 - The issue you are complaining about or the decision you are appealing – describe what happened and how it affected you.
 - Any evidence you have to support your complaint or appeal.
 - Details about the steps you have already taken to resolve the issue.
 - Suggestions about how the matter might be resolved.
- Your complaint or appeal will be acknowledged in writing via email or post within 7 days of receipt.

4.6 Resolution of complaints and appeals

- Some or all members of the management team of TRILITY will be involved in resolving complaints and appeals as outlined in the procedures.
- Where a complaint or appeal involves another individual or organisation, they will be given the opportunity to respond to any allegations made.
- Where a third party delivering Services on behalf of the RTO is involved, they will be included in the process of resolving the complaint or appeal.
- In the case of an assessment appeal, an assessor who is independent from the original decision will assess the original task again. The outcome of this assessment will be the result granted for the assessment task.

4.7 Independent parties

- TRILITY acknowledges the need for an appropriate independent party to be appointed to review a matter where this is requested by the complainant or appellant and the internal processes have failed to resolve the matter.
- Complainants and appellants can find an appropriate independent party by calling the Resolution Institute on 02 9251 3366 or by searching the following directory, according to their locality and area of concern: <https://www.resolution.institute/disputeresolverdirectory>
- Costs associated with independent parties to review a matter must be covered by the complainant/appellant unless the decision to include an independent party was made by TRILITY.
- TRILITY may also appoint the independent party to be involved in the resolution of a complaint or appeal where it is deemed necessary.
- TRILITY will provide complete cooperation with the external mediator investigating the complaint/appeal and will be bound by the recommendations arising out of this process.
- The CEO will ensure that any recommendations made are implemented within twenty (20) days of being notified of the recommendations. The complainant or appellant will also be formally notified in writing of the outcome of the mediation.

4.8 External complaint avenues

Naturally, we want to try and resolve any complaint you may have with us directly.

We are confident we can work with you to address any concern or dispute, however, in the unlikely event where we are not be able to, complaints can also be made via the following avenues:

- National Training Complaints Hotline:

The National Training Complaints Hotline is a national service for consumers to register complaints concerning vocational education and training. The service refers consumers to the appropriate agency/authority/jurisdiction to assist with their complaint. Consumers can register a complaint with the National Training Complaints Hotline by:

- Phone: 13 38 73, Monday–Friday, 8am to 6pm nationally.
- Email: ntch@education.gov.au

For more information about the National Training Complaints Hotline, refer to the following webpage: <https://www.education.gov.au/NTCH>

- Australian Skills Quality Authority (ASQA):

Complainants may also complain to TRILITY’s registering body, Australian Skills Quality Authority (ASQA).

ASQA can investigate complaints about TRILITY in relation to:

- the quality of our training and assessment
- our marketing and advertising practices

ASQA may not be able to investigate complaint if you do not include evidence that you have already exhausted TRILITY’s formal internal complaints process as above.

Please refer to the following website before making a complaint to ASQA:
<https://www.asqa.gov.au/complaints>

- Queensland Training Ombudsman

The Queensland Training Ombudsman provides a free, confidential, and independent service to review and resolve enquiries and complaints from apprentices, trainees, student, employers and other parties about the vocational education and training system.

Complaints can be lodged with the Queensland Training Ombudsman by phone on 1800 773 048 or via the online complaint form.

- Fair Trading

If you are a QLD student and your complaint is related to fees or refunds and you are not satisfied with the way we have handled your complaint or the outcome, contact Fair Trading on 13 74 68 or visit the Fair Trading website.

- Apprenticeships Info

If you are a trainee in QLD with a complaint or an issue, contact Apprenticeships Info on 1800 210 210 or email apprenticeshipsinfo@qld.gov.au for further advice.

- South Australian Skills Commission

If you are a trainee in SA and have a complaint about any aspect arising from your training contract, you can contact the Commission on 1800 006 488 or lodge a dispute via their online form.

- Tasmanian Traineeships and Apprenticeships Committee (TTAC)

If you a trainee in TAS you can reach out to the TTAC for any concerns related to your traineeship TTAC

4.9 Publication

This policy and procedure will be published in the Student Handbook and on TRILITY’s website.
